Pupil Privacy Notice

Why are we giving this to you?

Eagley Junior School needs to use information about your child. We do this for a number of reasons. This form tells you what information we use about your child and why we use it. It is very important that information about your child is kept safe. We explain below how the school keeps your child's information safe.

If you want to know anything about what we do with information about your child then please contact the school.

We also have a person called the Data Protection Officer at the school. They can answer any questions you have about what the school does with your child's information. If you want to speak to them, then you can do at:

Where do we get this information from?

We get this information from:

- Parents/carers and other children’s parents/carers
- Teachers and other staff
- People from other organisations, like doctors or the local authority for example

Why do we use this information?

We use this information for many reasons, including:

- To make sure that we give your child a good education and to support your child through this
- To make sure that we are able to address and support any educational, health or social needs your child may have
- To make sure everyone is treated fairly and equally
- To keep your child and everyone at the school safe and secure
- To deal with emergencies involving your child
- To celebrate your child’s achievements
- To provide reports and additional information to parents/carers

Some of these things we have to do by law. Other things we do because we need to so that we can run the school.

Sometimes we need permission to use your child’s information. This includes taking pictures or videos of you to be used on our website, our facebook page or in the newspaper. Before we do these things we will ask you for permission.

Why do we use special category personal data?

We may need to use the information about your child which is special (mentioned above) where there is a specific interest to do so, for example health and social care purposes or to provide your child with equal opportunities and treatment. We will also use this information where you have given us permission to do so.

There may also be circumstances where we need to use your child's information in relation to legal claims, or to protect your child's vital interests and where you are unable to provide your consent.

How long will we hold information in relation to our pupils?

We will hold information relating to your child only for as long as necessary. How long we need to hold on to any information will depend on the type of information. When your child's changes school we will usually pass your child's information to the new school.

Who will we share pupil information with?

We may share information about your child with:

- Other schools or educational institutions your child may attend or
- Local Authorities, to assist them in the exercise of their responsibilities in relation to education and training, youth support and safeguarding purposes
- The Department for Education and ESFA as required by the law
- Contractors, to enable them to provide an effective service to the school, such as school meal providers or music teachers.

Keeping this information safe

It is very important that only people who need to use your child's information can see it. The school keeps your information safe by:

- Keeping it on a secure server with access restricted to those people who need to see it.
- Using a remote access device to access the school server when teachers are working at home, instead of carrying paper copies home.
- Sending information to other people and organisations through secure transfer methods such as encrypted emails.

Your rights in relation to your information

You can ask to see the information we hold about your child. If you wish to do this you should contact your child's class teacher. If the teacher does not have access to the information you want, you should contact the Headteacher.

You also have the right to:

- Object to what we are doing with your child's information

- Have inaccurate or incomplete information about your child amended
- Ask us to stop doing certain things with your child's information in some cases
- Ask that decisions about your child are not made using automatic systems
- Claim against the school in certain circumstances where your child has suffered as a result of the school breaching your child's data protection rights

If you feel it necessary to do any of the above, you can speak the Headteacher. The school does not have to meet all of your requests and we will let you know where we are unable to do so.

Concerns

If you are concerned about how we are using your child's personal data then you can speak with the Headteacher or if necessary you can contact an outside agency - the Information Commissioner's Office - who could also help at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>.
